UCWDC LINE DANCE COMPETITION AND COVID-19

April 3, 2020

Fellow Line Dancers,

As we continue to monitor the current global pandemic situation, the UCWDC is continuing to work closely with the Line Dance Committee and all its Event Directors to help mitigate its effects on YOU, our dance family.

Therefore, we have decided to continue the new 2020 Classic Line Competition Dances through the 2021 dance season. This means that the current Line Dances will be used for the next two (2) Country Dance World Championships (2021 in San Antonio, TX and 2022 in Orlando, FL).

We will continue to work diligently on the creation of fun new 2022 Classic Line Dances which will be released at the end of Worlds 2022, that will all take effect at the start the new dance season, January 16, 2022. This decision will provide everyone adequate time to continue to train in the dances, while many of us are experiencing a 'lockdown' situation and then to get coaching when our lives return to normal.

We thank the entire UCWDC Line Dance Family for supporting each other during these difficult times and we look forward to seeing you all again soon.
